RESOLVE, a non-profit organization in Washington, DC is seeking a Senior Mediator.

Organization Overview: RESOLVE is an independent organization focused on helping diverse groups solve environmental, social, and health problems. We work with leaders in communities, governments, businesses, non-profits, academia, and foundations to find solutions that make a difference for society. We are based in Washington DC and work on local, regional, national, and international projects. We assess situations for collaboration possibilities, design collaborative strategies and processes, facilitate dialogues, and mediate differences that lead to solutions. Our project areas include sustainable agriculture, product stewardship and certification, healthy ecosystems, energy, natural resources, climate change, public and environmental health.

Responsibilities: We are seeking 1-2 individuals to join and complement our team of mediators and issue and practice leaders. We are open to applicants from civil society, government agencies, businesses, NGO's, academia, and foundations. We are looking for senior staff with demonstrated and significant experience:

- analyzing situations for collaborative potential;
- designing and convening complex dialogue or problem solving processes;
- building and maintaining trusting and productive relationships among diverse people;
- supporting and organizing negotiations to create sustainable agreements;
- innovating to develop new tools to that fit unique and evolving circumstances;
- working at the highest levels with partners in government, foundations, corporations, and civil society.

Qualifications: Applicants must be able to demonstrate 10-20 years of experience with collaboration and consensus building on complex public policy issues. Applicants must have an established reputation with issues or policy areas of interest to RESOLVE. They must also be adept at building a portfolio of projects and partnerships that match RESOLVE's issues foci.

Currently, RESOLVE is seeking senior issue and practice leaders with experience in:

- energy, including conservation, transmission, security, and renewables, as well as conventional energy sources;
- climate change, including mitigation and adaptation;
- corporate sustainable development, product stewardship, and certification.

Senior staff report to the President and Vice President of RESOLVE and work closely with other senior staff to develop projects, advance the organization, and improve the collaboration and consensus-building field.

Salary is commensurate with experience. RESOLVE offers excellent benefits including medical and dental insurance, long term disability, retirement and education contributions, generous family, vacation, and sick leave.
